

HIGH END WINE

CHÂTEAU MOUTON ROTHSCHILD, 1ER GRAND CRU CLASSÉ, AOC, PAUILLAC, BORDEAUX, FRANCE

1998 46,860

"A magical place where so many artists and art forms, cultures and religions bear resounding witness to the eternal and fruitful dialogue between art and wine". Château Mouton Rothschild, 1998 Rufino Tamayo the most renowned Mexican artists of the 20th century. Created "Brindis" a man proposing a toast : a commonplace ritual that Tamayo transforms, under a glowing sun, into a striking allegory of raw desire.

CHÂTEAU LATOUR 1ER GRAND CRU CLASSÉ, PAUILLAC, BORDEAUX FRANCE

2002 40,400

the difference between our expectations after an apparently disastrous summer and the first tastings was so huge the 2002 will remain etched in our memories. Rain was lacking from November to April and by mid-April there was a drought situation. There was substantial rain in May and low temperatures. The summer began with a hot. All the analysis confirmed a high concentration of sugars and the vintages excellent potential

CHÂTEAU LYNCH - BAGES, 5ÈME GRAND CRU CLASSÉ, AOC PAUILLAC, BORDEAUX, FRANCE

2005 17,070

As for the 2005 Lynch-Bages, it is a sexy, surprisingly soft and accessible style of wine, with a deep ruby/purple color, loads of crème de cassis, cedar wood and forest floor notes, medium to full body, ripe tannin and a long, fleshy finish. Drink it over the next 15+ years. Overall, the terroir of Pauillac varies more than might be expected in an area of only 23 square kilometers (9 square miles), where the land near the banks of the Gironde estuary with the best vineyard sites rises and falls by a maximum of 30 meters (100ft). Over hundreds of vintages, the châteaux and their winemakers have become very skilled at emphasizing the individuality of their vineyards, and there is general agreement that the styles of the top three châteaux are discernibly different. Overall, however, there is still an identifiable Pauillac wine style: full, rich, and characterized by the classic cassis-and-cedar wood aromas of oak-aged Cabernet Sauvignon

TENUTA DELL'ORNELLAIA BOLGHERI SUPERIORE ORNELLAIA, SUPERIORE, DOC TUSCANY, ITALY

2014 16,800

2014 was one of the most demanding years in our memory, and has allowed us to produce high quality wines that are offering great delight. The late ripening of the grapes allowed the fruit to fully express its liveliness and freshness. What is particularly striking is the high quality of the tannins on the palate; silky; refined, without rough edges. This year represents the heart of the estate, Ornellaia's 'Essence': its natural style, the exceptional quality of its terroir, and the competence of those who work in the vineyards and the cellar.

Blend: 34% Cabernet Sauvignon, 32% Merlot, 20% Petit Verdot, 14% Cabernet Franc
